SAFI ONLINE WORKSHOP

SOCIETAS APERTA FEMINARUM IN IURIS THEORIA

Narrating Dignity, Claiming Recognition:

Women's Voices Across Time

26th September 2026

ORGANIZERS: GIULIA BATTISTONI, SABRINA ZUCCA-SOEST, LUÍZA DE PAULA

9:30 | Welcoming Remarks | Giulia Battistoni (Münster/ Verona), SAFI President

Session 1 | Human Dignity in 17th- and 18th-Century Literature

Chair | Giulia Battistoni

9:45–10:15 | Elisabetta Orlandi (Lille), Beyond the Magic Wand: The Architecture of Dignity in the Fairy Tales of the French Salonnières

10:15–10:45 | Elena Alberti (Halle), Is Human Dignity a Gendered Concept? Women's Letters and Epistolary Agency in Eighteenth-Century

10:45–11:15 | Discussion | 11:15–11:30 | Break

Session 2 | Women's Dignity in Contemporary Legal Contexts

Chair | Sabrina Zucca-Soest

11:30–12:00 | Marina Saez (Florence), How Much Suffering for Dignity? Women's Suffering and the Threshold of Recognition in the European Court of Human Rights

12:00–12:30 | Sofia Grossi (Rome), Women's Dignity and the Right to Truth through Transitional Justice

12:30–13:00 | Discussion

13:00 | Concluding Remarks | Sabrina Zucca-Soest (Dresden/Hamburg), SAFI President

"Dignity is not given. It is narrated, claimed, recognized."

To receive the Zoom link to participate, please write to: giulia.battistoni.90@gmail.com

LITERATURE ACROSS CENTURIES | VOICES OF WOMEN | DIGNITY AND JUSTICE